NETWORKING WITH OTHER MEMBERS The PCC gives the most convenient and easiest access to postal managers and representatives, mailers in your same industry, and vendors. Having connections with others in the mailing industry will provide you and your organization with the most valuable tools necessary to run your mail operations. Our members come in all types: presidents, owners, mail center managers, mail center operators and staff, administrators, big companies, small companies, non-profits, government agencies, and nearly every vendor in the mailing industry!

EDUCATION Utilizing seminars, tours and a trade show/exhibit format, our PCC will provide you with the most up to date and cutting edge information from the U.S. Postal Service and the mailing industry. The PCC is an ideal way of continuing education in the mailing industry.

SUPPORTING AND SHARING RESOURCES Our PCC Members have helped each other by sharing resources and knowledge at critical mailing times. In addition, the support of having others who have "been there and done that" is remarkable.

VENDOR INFORMATION Having immediate contacts to mailing equipment companies, service bureaus, mail houses and other mailing vendors is valuable. Our PCC has a fantastic group of vendors who support the PCC and assist with keeping members up to date on their products and services.
